

FIRE IN YOUR BELLY

Firenze Opening Night

The opening of a restaurant is always a grand excuse for a party and the recent revels at Firenze hosted by owners James and Gavin proved a first class example. Osborne Road is famed for it's busy bars and heiter skeiter night life. Firenze is a stylish, welcome oasis of excellence situated a world away and yet just behind the busy road in its own private courtyard. It's worth finding for a quick snack or formal dinner away from the clamour and is a really handy place to meet with friends in Newcastle's bustling Jesmond.
